

4 STEPS TO PREPARE FOR TEMPLE'S CRIMINAL & SOCIAL JUSTICE VIRTUAL FAIR

Wednesday, February 16 | 1-5pm

1. REFINE YOUR RESUME & HANDSHAKE PROFILE

- Schedule a resume and Handshake profile review via Handshake with the Joyce K. Salzberg Center for Professional Development and/or Temple Career Center
- Attend Rapid Resume Review on Thursday, February 3rd, 2-4pm

2. REGISTER FOR THE FAIR

- Register here; review How-To Guide to learn more about how to register
- Create your fair schedule (group and 1:1 sessions will be available)
 - Caution! Leave time in between sessions and cancel if you can no longer attend
- Review Handshake's Guide to Attending a Virtual Fair

3. ATTEND PREP SESSION

- Attend the Criminal & Social Justice Virtual Fair Prep Session on Wednesday, February 9th, 5-6pm
 - This session will be recorded and kept on the Joyce K. Salzberg Canvas page
- Review this video to learn what to expect on the day of the fair

4. PRACTICE & TROUBLESHOOT

- Develop and practice your elevator pitch
- Research employers attending fair on Handshake and compile questions for them
- Troubleshoot technology to ensure ease on the day of fair
- Prepare to be on time with professional dress and background
- There is no required dress code, but we encourage you to dress to impress. Find a quiet space with a background you feel comfortable being seen in as Handshake does not allow customized virtual backgrounds.
