

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

5th Floor, Gladfelter Hall
1115 Polett Walk
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, 19122
website: www.cla.temple.edu/criminal-justice

FALL 2020 CRIMINAL JUSTICE FILM SERIES

The Department of Criminal Justice presents: the Fall 2020 Criminal Justice Film Series.

All screenings will be on Thursdays at 7 pm and are free and open to the entire Temple University community.

After the screening, there will be an (optional) opportunity to discuss the film.

September 17	Fruitvale Station (2013, Ryan Coogler)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/98184835848
September 24	Dog Day Afternoon (1975, Sidney Lumet)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/96591887835
October 1	Fyre Fraud (2019, Jenner Furst and Julia Willoughby Nason)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/96682288451
October 8	American Made (2017, Doug Liman)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/94254020797
October 15	Crips and Bloods: Made in America (2008, Stacy Peralta)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/91731428927
October 22	American Animals (2018, Bart Layton)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/95457643840
October 29	Kids for Cash (2013, Robert May)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/92832258960
November 5	Molly's Game (2017, Aaron Sorkin)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/93521209016
November 12	Reservoir Dogs (1992, Quentin Tarantino)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/95596402311
November 19	Long Shot (2017, Jacob LaMendola)	https://temple.zoom.us/j/93910789369

Content warning: These are films about crime and the justice system. Some include descriptions and depictions of violence that some find disturbing. Please contact auerhahn@temple.edu if you have any questions in advance of a particular screening.