The Gallery of Art, Temple University Rome, is pleased to present the Fall 2023 Student Exhibition which will take place on Thursday December 7th from 6-8pm.

The show features the works of art created by the students in Visual Arts and Architecture classes during their Study Abroad semester at Temple Rome. The public will enjoy examples of sculpture and painting, printmaking and drawing, digital and black and white photography, papermaking and architecture.

Since 1966 the Villa Caproni has been the Rome Campus of Temple University in Philadelphia and has hosted students over these 55 years to include Junior Year abroad, MFA and BFA candidates, and most recently the TREY Entry Year for first year of university. In addition, the Campus hosts Adult Education workshops for mature learners, and various programs that put the Campus in relation to the City of Rome.

The Gallery of Art is just one of the important vehicles in a vibrant exchange between the Rome Campus, other University programs, Roman and Italian institutions, students, art professionals and art lovers, and friends.
